NOVEMBER 2018 • WE GATHER TOGETHER

An Anniversary Party for the Books

What an anniversary party it was here at Canfield Place this past September! Residents and employees came dressed to the nines ready to honor our Community for its 22 years of service. With entertainment from Jazz Trio Jass Two Plus One, an exquisite menu and decorations for the occasion, it was a night to remember. Our new Chef, Mike Lincoln, offered a spread for residents and their families that included a carving station, champagne toast and a delicious selection of desserts that completed the evening. How fun it was to see everyone at the party in fancy attire. Residents noted how fabulous the Dining Room looked and how much they enjoyed seeing the staff dress up. Here's to many more years enjoying five-star fun!

Senior Day at the Oregon Zoo

What a bustling day it was at the Oregon Zoo for Senior Day. Ready for a safari adventure, residents headed out ready to see all the different wildlife. Founded in 1888, the Oregon Zoo is the oldest zoo west of the Mississippi River. Along their adventure, residents saw everything from giraffes, tigers, elephants, sea otters and more! The animals must have known Canfield was there for a visit, because they put on a show for us that made the day even that much more special! Overall, residents' favorite exhibits were the monkeys, showcasing their charming personalities and doing tricks for them. We look forward to next year's Senior Day at the Oregon Zoo, viewing the different wildlife Portland has to offer.

Channel Your Inner Artist at Watercolor Class!

Calling all artists! There is a new addition to the diverse programs offered here at Canfield. Once a month, join us for watercolor painting class with local artist Heidi Jo Curley. For our first session, Heidi familiarized residents with different brushes used, color palates and designs. Having a creative outlet for residents allows them to expand upon their talents as artists. One resident noted, "I love having the opportunity to paint whatever I want. Heidi was so helpful. I'm excited for the next class with her!" With a high turnout for our first class, we can't wait to see what Heidi has cooked up for us next month.

Residents get to work!
