Janet Davis: My Story

My story began in Brooklyn, N.Y., in 1925. The youngest of four children, I went to work right after high school as a bookkeeper and worked for the same company until the day they closed their doors, which conveniently took me right up to my retirement! Eugene and I married in October, 1963, and lived our life 'up north' until we followed (most of) our friends to sunny Florida.

Life at Kings Point/Tamarac provided a very active retirement and enabled us to reunite with many of our friends from our younger years. After Eugene passed away, I kept active playing Canasta with the ladies, joined numerous organizations, and spent many wonderful days and evenings at our clubhouse watching shows and going to our nearby theater.

My next chapter began when I met my best friend, Susan, who came into our lives about 19 years ago. Surprisingly, I owe this lasting friendship to fate. Turns out, we were just another "lead" on Susan's list to contact as a financial planner/investment advisor. Now, we were not in the habit of talking to strangers about money, let alone inviting one into our home! But, in our case, this meeting was the beginning of a loving relationship. In the years to come, we grew closer and saw each other frequently. When Eugene became ill, Susan became my rock, visiting the nursing home and being very supportive to me. Many thought she was my daughter, as there was nothing we wouldn't do for each other.

With no children of my own to rely on, Susan was always looking after me. Two years ago, I became ill and when I entered rehab, she convinced me to move closer to her home in Palm Beach County so we could spend more time together and she could oversee my health care. Following a brief stay at another facility, Susan suggested The Landing as a better location for my well-being. Now we are like two peas in a pod and when something isn't right, I don't have to ask twice. Susan will fix it!

I absolutely love my apartment and relish my interactions with the other residents at The Landing. I am someone who enjoys staying busy and being entertained, and with the endless activities and full social life I have here, I will be busy writing new chapters in my story for many years to come!

Activities for Breast Cancer Awareness Month

Every October, people come together to support the fight against breast cancer, and there are numerous ways to get involved.

Put on some pink — The color pink is a global symbol of breast cancer awareness. Sporting a pink ribbon and other accessories is a simple way to spark conversation about the disease. Some workplaces, schools and other groups designate a Pink Out Day, when participants make a donation and dress in pink to raise money and awareness.

Dandy Candy Facts

Whether chocolaty, chewy or crunchy, candy is a favorite treat. Indulge in these tidbits about some popular sweets.

- About 65% of American candy brands have been around for over 50 years.
- Candy corn was originally called "chicken feed," since it resembled the corn kernels fed to livestock.
- The Snickers bar was named after a racehorse that once belonged to the Mars family, whose company makes the candy bars.
- More than 60 million Tootsie Rolls are produced every day.
- M&M's are one of the most popular sweets requested by NASA astronauts.
- Milky Way candy bars are named for a popular 1920s malted milkshake, not for our home galaxy.
- When the 3 Musketeers bar debuted in 1932, it came in three pieces of flavored nougat – chocolate, vanilla and strawberry. Vanilla and strawberry were phased out due to World War II rationing.
- Pez candies got their name from the German word for peppermint, pfefferminz.

Activities for Breast Cancer Awareness Month (Continued)

Walk for a cure – Communities often host a 5K race or walk-a-thon in honor of Breast Cancer Awareness Month. These fundraising events allow people to join together and show widespread support to those battling breast cancer.

Go shopping – Many national brands and local businesses run promotions during October, when proceeds from the sales of specific items are donated to breast cancer organizations. Whether buying clothing, beauty products or baked goods, shopping can help fund the cause.

Give back – If you want to contribute money, choose charities that focus on patient support and/or research initiatives. To donate items such as blankets, hats and cards of encouragement, check with local hospitals and treatment centers to see if they accept donations for their breast cancer patients.
